

Product highlights

- Top layer of seat foam structure made from special memory foam which provides greater comfort for patients during treatment thanks to its viscoelastic properties
- Viscoelastic effect allows to the upholstery surface to track the body line, so the human body weight is more optimal distributed on the sitting surface which reduces pressure on the body and spine

Memory effect of viscoelastic foam

- Memory foam on the entire top surface of upholstery is available upon request

Memory foam top layer in seat segment

